

In this book Nadia Vidro presents a critical edition and English translation of the first Karaite pedagogical grammar of Hebrew, Kitāb al-‘Uqūd fī Taṣarīf al-Luġa al-‘Ibrāniyya. Composed in Jerusalem in the 11th century, Kitāb al-‘Uqūd is a concise description of Hebrew prepared specifically to cater for the needs of students just beginning their study of the language. The critical edition is accompanied by an historical introduction, a description of the manuscripts, and a glossary of grammatical terminology. This publication expands the corpus of available primary sources emanating from the Karaite school of Hebrew grammar, and makes this fascinating and important medieval work accessible to a wide audience of Hebrew linguists, Biblical scholars and those interested in language pedagogy and its history.

Nadia Vidro, Ph.D. (2009), Cambridge University, works on the history of Hebrew linguistics, mainly the Karaite grammatical tradition. She is author of Verbal Morphology in the Karaite Treatise on Hebrew Grammar Kitāb al-‘Uqūd fī Taṣarīf al-Luġa al-‘Ibrāniyya (Brill, 2011).
