

Contents

List of Abbreviations ix

Introduction: Setting the Stage i

Words of Warning i

Sex, Status, and Homecoming: A Jewish Penelope? 4

Sin, Shame, and Sanctity: The Tale of the Lusty Wife and Rabbi Meir 15

Contents 25

Part I. Projections of Biblical Spheres of Women

1. From Dinah to Cozbi: Rape, Sex, and Foundational Moments 33

From Rape to Parental Reticence 35

Why Not Marry a Shechemite? 42

Dinah and Matriarchal Betrothals 45

A Woman of the Wilderness: The Rape of Cozbi 49

Foundation Murders and Rapes 52

2. Patriarchy and Patriotism: Integrating Sex into

Second Temple Society 57

Birth of a Nation: Marriage and Patriotism in Ezra 58

Private and Public in Yehud 61

Sin, Scripture, and Intermarriage 63

The Fate of Foreign Spouses 66

The Case of the Defiant Daughter: Jubilees' Dinah 69

3. From Esther to Aseneth: Marriage, Familial Stereotypes, and Domestic Felicity 76

Marriage Between Gentiles, Model 1: Ahasuerus and Vashti 77

Marriage Between Gentiles, Model 2: Haman and Zeresh 82

The Jewish Family 84

Intermarriage: Ahasuerus and Esther 89

Integrating Brides into the Family: Aseneth and Joseph 92

Part II. Visions of Rabbinic Order

4. Keeping Adultery at Bay: The Wayward Wife in Late Antiquity 105

Theologies and Theories of Sexuality: Roman and Rabbinic
Perspectives 105

Suspecting Adultery 110

Preliminaries: Singling Out Adulteresses 113

The Right to Accuse: Constantinian and Rabbinic Innovations 118

The "Other": Lovers and Aftermath 125

5. The Harmony of the Home in Late Antiquity: Jewish, Roman, and Christian Perspectives on Intermarriage 132

Why Not Marry a Goy? 137

Early Christianity and Marital Peripheries 151

Banning Jewish-Christian Marriage: Roman Legal Perspectives 155

Conclusion: To Die like a Woman? To Live like a Woman? Is There a
Jewess in Judaism? 161

Notes 173

Bibliography 215

General Index 235

Index of Citations 241

Acknowledgments 247