

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	ix
1. The Transformation of Violent Experiences: A Psychological Perspective Don J. Brand	1
2. Jewish Religious Communities and Wife Abuse Roberta Rosenberg Farber	11
3. The Treatment of Violence and Extra-Judicial Exercise of Law and Justice in Jewish Law Chaim Povarsky	39
4. Jewish Violence in Antiquity: Three Dimensions Meir Bar-Ilan	71
5. Legitimate Violence in Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner	83
6. "Mercy is Vouchsafed From Heaven:" Halakhah's Response to Violence As Expressed In the Arukh Hashulkhan Orach Haim—Sections 560 and 576-8 Simcha Fishbane	105
7. Violence as a Factor in the Communal Life of the Montreal Jewish Community in the Early Twentieth Century Ira Robinson	123
8. Anglo-Jewry and Military Conscription during the Great War Geoffrey Alderman	133
9. Novel Anti-Semitisms: Vampiric Reflections of the Jew Britain, 1875-1914 Sara Libby Robinson	143
10. The Personification of Excess: Antisemitism and the Wages of Alienation Mark P. Worrell	155

11. Ploughshares into Swords: Contemporary Religious Zionists and Moral Constraints 175
Yitzchak Blau
12. “From The Depths I Have Called To You”: Jewish
Reflections on September 11th and Contemporary Terrorism 195
David Shatz
13. Is There a “Halakhic” Response to The Problem of Evil? 227
Moshe Sokol

Contributors 239