

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction—The Myth of the Cultural Jew	xiii
1. Culture, Law, and the Development of Jewish Tradition	1
The Emerging Focus on Law and Cultural Analysis	3
Power, Environment, and Conflict	4
Multiple Values and the Interrelationship between Law and Culture	7
Examining Jewish Tradition through Cultural Analysis:
An Introduction	11
Power Relationships	14
Environment and Conflict	19
Multiple Values and the Interrelationship between Law and Culture	22
Cultural Analysis and the Chain of Tradition	25
2. Origins and Development of Jewish Law: A Top-Down View	29
Revelation at Sinai—The Paramount Top-Down Paradigm	29
The Oral Law as a Supplement to Revelation and the Introduction of Rabbinic Lawmaking Authority	32
The Reforms of the Sages in the Rabbinic Period: Forging a New Religion	39
Hellenistic Influences on Early Jewish Law	45
Rabbinic Law in the Post-Talmudic Period	49

3. The Norms of Jewish Law Observance: A Bottom-Up View	55
Introductory Themes	55
Popular Validation of Rabbinic Authority in Shaping Bottom-Up Practices: Childbirth	66
The Influence of Outside Cultural Elements: Circumcision	69
Rabbinic Toleration: Childbirth, Circumcision, and Martyrdom	74
The Role of Persecution: Death and Mourning	76
Rabbinic Reliance on the Bottom Up: Increasing Stringencies in Kashrut	80
4. The Birth of Jewish Denominations in Modernity and Their Divergent Views on Jewish Law	85
Reform Judaism	87
Ideological Predicate	87
Historical Development	89
Lawmaking	94
Orthodoxy in Modern Times	96
Ideological Predicate	96
Historical Development	101
Lawmaking under Orthodox Standards	109
The Conservative Movement	113
Ideological Predicate	113
Historical Development	116
Lawmaking under the Conservative Movement	122
The Law and Culture of Postdenominationalism	124
5. Foundational Conflicts: "Who Is a Jew" and Sabbath Laws	129
Parameters of Conflict	130
Conflict between Reform and Other Movements: Who Is a Jew from Birth?	133
Ritual Conflict: Sabbath Laws on Driving and Electricity	144
6. Homosexuality	157
Reform Judaism	160
Orthodox Judaism	163
Conservative Judaism	169
Cultural Analysis and Affirmation of the Status Quo	172

Cultural Analysis and Innovation within the Traditional Process	178
Cultural Analysis and Innovative Process	183
Cultural Analysis and Halakhic Pluralism	186
7. Women and Synagogue Ritual	193
The Classical Jewish Law Sources Governing Torah Reading and Aliyyot for Women	197
Talmudic Sources	197
The Obligation Issue	199
Dignity of the Congregation and Waiver	202
The Jewish Law Codes	206
Consensus and Ability to Revisit	207
The Nature of Past and Present Resistance to Feminist Claims	210
A Basis for Change	219
8. The State of Israel's Role in Forging Jewish Law and Culture in the Post-Holocaust Era	225
Halakhah and Israeli Law	225
An Examination of Israeli Jewish Identity	235
9. Jewish Identity in the United States	253
The Empirical Picture of American Judaism	255
Jewish Federations as Civil Religion	261
Israel	264
Anti-Semitism and Anti-Zionism	266
Jewish Liberalism	270
Social Forces Militating against Tradition	274
10. The Lessons of Cultural Analysis	281
Particularity and Cultural Fluidity	282
Pluralism and Authenticity	285
Importance of the Emerging Middle Ground	288
Aggadah and Halakhah	291
Index	299