

Contents

Introduction — 1

- Scholars as Redeemers — 2
- The Argument — 5
- An Imprint of the National Self — 8
- Encyclopedism as a Political Position — 12

Chapter One

Amass: Knowledge in the Making of a Nation — 16

- The Redemptive Science — 18
- Palestine: Longing for a Distant Land — 29
- Explaining the Ways of the Gentiles — 32
- Conclusions — 46

Chapter Two

Introspection: Creating Singularity at the Outset of the Zionist Movement — 48

- Against the Narrative: Contesting the Book of History — 50
- Against the Myth: Contesting the Anthology of Folklore — 54
- Deterritorializing the Nation: The Encyclopedia as a New Homeland — 59
- The Expert: Yearning for a Jewish Polymath — 71
- A Hybrid Model for a Diverse Nation — 75
- The Subversive Dogma — 80
- Jewish Theology and other Zionist Perplexities — 89
- Conclusions — 94

Chapter Three

Decentralization: The Breakdown of the National Utopia — 96

- The Demise of Unity — 98
- American Conservatism as Zionist Avant Garde — 103
- Worshipping the Present: A Russian Opposition to the National Utopia — 124
- Up Against the Zionist Utopia — 130
- Conclusions — 139

Chapter Four

Normality: The Migration of Knowledge to Palestine — 142

- Berlin: An Intellectual Getaway — 144

XII — Contents

Yiddish, the Language of Progress — 150
Becoming Native — 154
Bracha Peli and the Making of a Normal Nation — 157
The Nation's Young Vanguards — 167
Conclusions — 170

Chapter Five

Omnipotence: Making the Israeli Canon — 172
The Bible and the Cosmopolitan Levant — 174
The Encyclopedic Lexicon — 187
Light unto the Nations — 188
The Demise of the Vision — 198

Aftermath

Zionist Historiography from a Bird's Eye View — 205

Bibliography — 208

Index — 214