

Contents

Preface: Historicizing German-Jewish Subjectivity	ix
Part I. Terms of Engagement: Concepts, Methods, Polemics
1 Forget Assimilation: Subjectivity and German-Jewish History	3
2 Modernism without Jews: A Counterhistorical Argument	19
3 The Secularization Question: Germans, Jews, and the Historical Understanding of Modernity	40
Part II. Troubled Cases: Canon and Genre
4 Edith Stein's Passing Gestures: Intimate Histories, Empathic Portraits	59
5 Two Vultures: Freud between "Jewish Science" and Humanism	86
6 Elsewhere in Austria: Jewish Writing between Habsburg Myth and Central Europe Effect	101
Part III. "No Fixed Abode": The Place of Kafka, Friends, and Modernism
7 Max Brod's Homelands, Kafka's Patrimony	121
8 Kafka and Literary Modernism	137
9 The Law of the Letter: Kafka's Correspondence with Milena Jesenská	151
Index	169

Illustrations follow page 82.