

Contents

Acknowledgements VII

Abbreviations IX

Introduction 1

- 1 Legal Obligation and the Ancient Near Eastern Law 'Codes' 1
- 2 Interpretation as the Key to Identifying Legal Obligation 6
- 3 Legal Theory and the Problem of Conceptual Anachronism 7
- 4 Overview of Chapters 10

PART I

Theory and Method

- 1 Identifying Legal Obligation in Interpretive Sources 15
 - 1 Legal Obligation and the Nature of Law's Authority 15
 - 2 The Rule of Law and Legal Interpretation 26
 - 3 Sabbath Interpretation as a Test Case 39
 - 4 Conclusion 47
- 2 History of Research and the Need for a Legal-Theoretical Approach 49
 - 1 Arguments for the Non-Binding Character of Ancient Near Eastern Law 50
 - 2 History of Scholarship and Conflicting Assumptions about Law 55
 - 3 Conclusion 75
- 3 Authority and Problem of Interpretation 76
 - 1 Defining Interpretation, Authority, and Scripture 76
 - 2 Authority and the Problem of Interpretation 79
 - 3 Authority Transfer and the Limits of Interpretation in Modern Law 82
 - 4 Authority and Interpretation in Ancient Israel and Early Judaism 85
 - 5 Interpretive Methods and Motives 94
 - 6 Conclusion 97

PART 2

Textual Analysis

4	Legal Interpretation in the Temple Scroll's Yom Kippur Law	101
1	An Overview of the Temple Scroll	101
2	The Text of Temple Scroll 25:10–27:10	108
3	Threats to the Rule of Law Addressed in Temple Scroll's Interpretive Rewriting	115
4	Conclusion	129
5	Legal Innovation in the Samaritan Pentateuch's Covenant Code	130
1	The Provenance of the Samaritan Pentateuch's Legal Innovations	131
2	Correcting Threats to the Rule of Law in the Samaritan Pentateuch	134
3	Further Considerations	142
4	Conclusion	147
6	Legal Rewriting in the Qumran Penal Codes	148
1	The Literary Relationship among the Rule Texts and the Problem of Their Genre	149
2	Interpretive Rewriting in the Penal Codes	156
3	The Genre of the Penal Codes and Historical Reconstruction	168
4	Conclusion	173
7	The Authority of the Torah in the Ezra-Nehemiah Legal Narratives	174
1	Preliminary Issue: Ezra's Torah and Pentateuchal Law	175
2	Community Response as Reflecting a Binding Attitude toward Law	177
3	The Authority of the Torah versus Torah Experts in Yehud	181
4	Conclusion	200
	Conclusion	202
1	Summary of Theory and Method	202
2	Summary of Textual Analysis	204
3	Between Authority and Interpretation in Ancient Law	206
4	Mapping the Emergence of Legal Obligation in Early Judaism	208
5	Looking Ahead	212
	Bibliography	215
	Index of Ancient Sources	242
	Index of Modern Authors	248