

CONTENTS

The First World War and the Jews Gideon Reuveni and Edward Madigan	1
 Part I Eastern Fronts
Between Light and Darkness: Jewish Education in Time of War Björn Siegel	19
Eastern Promises: Jewish Germans in the German Administration of Eastern Europe During the Great War Philipp Nielsen	43
Bread, Butter and Education: The Yiddishist Movements in Poland, 1914–1916 Emma Zohar	67
War and Nationalism in Palestine: The Jewish Migration Committee in the Galilee During the First World War Esther Yankelevitch	85

- Towards a Consolidation of Zionist National Consciousness in Palestine During the First World War:
A Local Urban Perspective 111
Anat Kidron

Part II Western Fronts

- A Mixed Bag of Loyalties: Jewish Soldiers, Ethnic Minorities, and State-Based Contingents in the German Army, 1914–1918 137
Gavin Wiens

- Between Inclusion and Exclusion: The Experiences of Jewish Soldiers in Europe and the USA, 1914–1918 159
Sarah Panter

- Between Faith and Nation: Italian Jewish Soldiers
in the Great War 183
Vanda Wilcox

- 'The March of the Judeans': The London Recruits of the Jewish Battalion in the First World War 207
Christopher Smith

Part III Post-war Memory and Commemoration

- The Female Side of War: The Experience and Memory of the Great War in Italian-Jewish Women's Ego-Documents 233
Ruth Nattermann

- Once 'the Only True Austrians': Mobilising Jewish Memory of the First World War for Belonging in the New Austrian Nation, 1929–1938 255
Tim Corbett

- The Iron Shield of David: The First World War and the Creation of German-Jewish Markers of Patriotism and Memory 277
Michal Friedlander

- 'Thou Hast Given Us Home and Freedom, Mother England':
Anglo-Jewish Gratitude, Patriotism, and Service During and After the First World War 307
Edward Madigan

- Index 335