

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
List of Contributors	xi
Acknowledgments	xv
Note on Transliterations	xvii
 Introduction: Writing a History of Horror, or What Happens When Monsters Stare Back Iris Idelson-Shein	 1
 Part One The Monster Without: Monsters in Jewish-Christian Intercultural Discourse
1 Enge unpathas uncuð gelad: The Long Walk to Freedom Miriamne Ara Krummel and Asa Simon Mittman	21
2 Monsters, Demons, and Jews in the Painting of Hieronymus Bosch Debra Higgs Strickland	42
3 Bestial Bodies on the Jewish Margins: Race, Ethnicity, and Otherness in Medieval Manuscripts Illuminated for Jews Marc Michael Epstein	69
4 Demonic Entanglements: Matted Hair in Medieval and Early Modern, Western, and Eastern Ashkenaz François Guesnet	86
5 A Jewish Frankenstein: Making Monsters in Modernist German Grotesques Joela Jacobs	102
6 From Sexual Enlightenment to Racial Antisemitism: Gender, Sex, and Jewishness in Weimar Cinema's Monsters Cathy S. Gelbin	118
7 Monsters in the Testimonies of Holocaust Survivors Kobi Kabalek	134
 Part Two The Monster Within: Monsters in Jewish Intracommunal Discourse
8 Unearthing the "Children of Cain": Between Humans, Animals, and Demons in Medieval Jewish Culture David I. Shyovitz	157
9 Sexuality and Communal Space in Stories about the Marriage of Men and She-Demons David Rotman	187

10	The Raging Rabbi: Aggression and Agency in an Early Modern Yiddish Werewolf Tale (Mayse-bukh 1602) Astrid Lembke	201
11	Out of the Mouths of Babes and Sucklings David B. Ruderman	213
12	Rabbinic Monsters: The World of Wonder and Rabbinic Culture at the Turn of the Nineteenth Century Maoz Kahana	229
13	"Der Volf" or The Jew as Out(side of the)law Jay Geller	251
	Select Bibliography	265
	Index	267