

Contents

Foreword	vii
Judith Herrin, Michael Trapp
Contributors	ix
List of figures	xiii
Introduction: questions of Socrates	xv
Michael Trapp
1. The comic Socrates	1
Peter Brown
2. Irony in the soul: should Plato's Socrates be sincere?	17
Mary Margaret McCabe
3. Xenophon's Socrateses	33
Deborah Levine Gera
4. Beyond Plato and Xenophon: some other ancient Socrateses	51
Michael Trapp
5. The Socratic corpus: Socrates and physiognomy	65
Daniel R. McLean
6. Socrates and his companions in art	89
Joseph Geiger
7. Two images of Sokrates in the art of the Greek east	105
Nikolaos Charalabopoulos
8. Socrates and the early Church	127
Mark Edwards
9. Socrates in Hellenistic and medieval Jewish literature, with special regard to Yehuda Hallevi's Kuzari	143
Gabriel Danzig
10. The Arabic Socrates: the place of al-Kindi's report in the tradition	161
Peter Adamson
11. Socrates in the Italian Renaissance	179
James Hankins

12.	The refutation of democracy? Socrates in the Enlightenment Ian Macgregor Morris	209
13.	Voltaire's Socrates Russell Goulbourne	229
14.	Bringing the hemlock up: Jacques-Louis David's Socrates and the inventions of history Valerie Mainz	249
15.	Adamance Coray (Koraës): the literary image of Socrates in the Greek Enlightenment and New Hellenism Nicholas A.E. Kalospyros	277
	General bibliography	299
	Index	303