

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
1 In the Beginning There Was Violence: “Protective Custody” and Arrests of Jews, 1933–1934	17
2 Inside the Early Concentration Camps: Abuse, Isolation, and Murder of Jews, 1933–1934	58
3 Her Transport to the Concentration Camp Has Been Ordered: Arrests and Imprisonment of Jewish Women, 1933–1939	100
4 Cementing the Enemy Category: Jews in the Evolving SS Concentration Camp System, 1935–1938	133
5 Instruments of Mass Persecution: The Concentration Camps and Anti-Jewish Policy in 1938	168
6 The Calm after the Storm? Jews in the Concentration Camps in 1939	211
Conclusion	230
Appendix: SS Ranks and U.S. Army Equivalents	237
Abbreviations	239
Notes	243
Bibliography	329
Acknowledgments	348
Index	351