

Contents

List of Figures	IX
List of Tables	X
1. Introduction: The Mechanics of Internationalism
MARTIN H. GEYER AND JOHANNES PAULMANN	I
2. Free Trade, Protectionism, and the World Economy
SIDNEY POLLARD	27
3. One Language for the World: The Metric System, International Coinage, Gold Standard, and the Rise of Internationalism, 1850–1900
MARTIN H. GEYER	55
4. Passports and the Status of Aliens
ANDREAS FAHRMEIR	93
5. Governmental Internationalism and the Beginning of a New World Order in the Late Nineteenth Century
MADELEINE HERREN	121
6. Searching for a ‘Royal International’: The Mechanics of Monarchical Relations in Nineteenth-Century Europe
JOHANNES PAULMANN	145
7. Workers of the World Unite? Exploring the Enigma of the Second International
MOIRA DONALD	177
8. The Making of International Women’s Organizations
LEILA J. RUPP	205

9.	Internationalizing Civilization by Dissolving International Society: The Status of Non-European Territories in Nineteenth-Century International Law
	JÖRG FISCH	235
10.	Nationalism and the Quest for Moral Universalism: German Freemasonry, 1860–1914
	STEFAN-LUDWIG HOFFMANN	259
11.	‘The next great task of civilization’: International Exchange in Popular Science. The German-American Case, 1850–1900
	ANDREAS W. DAUM	285
12.	Harmonicas for the World: The Creation and Marketing of a Global Product
	HARTMUT BERGHOFF	321
13.	‘Art knows no Fatherland’: Internationalism and the Reception of German Art in France in the early Third Republic
	RACHEL ESNER	357
14.	The Rise of Internationalism in Sport
	CHRISTIANE EISENBERG	375
15.	The ‘Philosophical World Journey’ in the Nineteenth Century as a Cultural Comparison: From Investigating the World to Exploring the Self
	ALEXANDER SCHMIDT-GERNIG	405
16.	‘Taking the Waters’: Meeting Places of the Fashionable World
	DAVID BLACKBOURN	435
	Notes on Contributors	458
	Index	463