

Table of contents

Foreword by Rebekka Wedell	7
1. The Meyers of Hanover and the Sieskinds of Ballenstedt	11
2. Landrabbiner Samuel Meyer and Lina Meyer (nee Sieskind)	16
3. "Life in Escherstrasse " – reminiscences of the Meyer household by Rebecca Steinthal (nee Meyer), 6 th daughter of Samuel and Lina	21
4. The abolition of the Dual Tithe (1850): ' Erinnerungsschrift ' 1919, Hanover City Archive – a Commemoration on the occasion of Samuel Meyer's centenary [orig. German/English transl.] .27/46
5. Family accounts and reminiscences of Samuel and Lina's children and their descendants.....	63
6. The Meyer family's participation in the First World War, and the Jewish Census – die Judenzählung – in October 1916	93
Georg Meyer's War-diary extracts (My Family History , 2001, Klaus Oliven)	94
A letter from Reichspräsident Hindenburg, in reply to Senator Justizrat Dr. Siegmund Meyer, December 28, 1916, (My Family History , 2001, Klaus Oliven)	96
" Hauptmann Georg Meyer und die 'Judenzählung' im Ersten Weltkrieg ", Hans-Dieter Schmid, Hanoversche Geschichtsblaetter , Neue Folge, Band 67, Seiten 113–127, (2015), with permis- sion of Hanover City Archiv [orig. German / English transla- tion]	99/114
Eulogy in remembrance of Lieutenant Franz Meyer (1893-1917), son of Siegmund Meyer, grandson of Samuel and Lina Meyer, by Landrabbiner Freund of Hanover, April 1917 [orig. German / English translation]	137/141
Afterword – Eberhard George Wedell	144
Closing Remarks – Rebekka Wedell	144

Acknowledgements	147
Selected Biography – Eberhard George Wedell	148
Publishing Editor – Erhard Roy Wiehn.....	148
Appendix – Family genealogy	149