

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Notes on Contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xi
 1 Secular Embodiments: Mapping an Emergent Field Monique Scheer, Birgitte Schepelern Johansen, Nadia Fadil	 1
 Part 1 Bodies and Other Secular Things
2 Contraception and the Coming of Secularism: Reconsidering Reproductive Freedom as Religious Freedom Pamela E. Klassen	17
3 A Secular Corpse? Tracing Cremation in Nineteenth-Century Italy and Germany Carolyn Kosuch	31
4 Observing the Atheist at Worship: Ways of Seeing the Secular Body Lois Lee	43
5 Secular Objects and Bodily Affects in the Museum Judith Dehail	61
 Part 2 Being Secular
6 Formations of a Secular Wedding Katie Aston	77
7 Complex Feelings: Catholicism, Gender and the Postsecular Subject in Quebec Géraldine Mossière	93
8 Secular Self-fashioning against 'Islamization': Beauty Practices and the Crafting of Secular Subjectivities among Middle-Class Women in Istanbul Claudia Liebelt	109
9 Love, War and Secular 'Reasonableness' among hilonim in Israel-Palestine Stacey Gutkowski	123
 Part 3 Making Secular Citizens
10 Secularizing Silent Bodies: Emotional Practices in the Minute's Silence Karsten Lichau	141

11	Required Romance: On Secular Sensibilities in Recent French Marriage and Immigration Regulations J. A. Selby	157
12	Quantitative Knowledge Production on Muslims in Europe as a Practice of 'Secular Suspicion' Birgitte Schepelern Johansen and Riem Spielhaus	171
13	Secular Affect and Urban Exclusion: Feelings about Burkas in Public Spaces Marian Burchardt and Mar Grier	185
14	Afterword: Getting Hold of the Secular Matthew Engelke	199
	Notes	208
	References	221
	Index	251