

Contents

Acknowledgements	IX
Abbreviations	XI
Abstract	XII
Introduction	1
1 The Modern Reception of the Ancient Reception of John's "Jews"	9
Theologians and Historians of Jewish-Christian Relations	9
Enter the New Testament Scholars	30
Readings of the Johannine Jews in Late Antiquity: Summary of Argument	49
2 Origen of Alexandria	55
Origen's Commentary on John : Backgrounds	57
Origen and the Johannine Christ: Teachers of Divine Things	64
Corporeal Christians, Johannine Jews, and the Resistors of Divine Things	69
Origen, Contemporary Gnostics and Jews, and John	92
3 John Chrysostom	101
John Chrysostom and the Homilies on John	102
John Chrysostom as Imitator of Christ	108
John Chrysostom's Audience as Imitators of the Johannine Jews	118
The Jews of Antioch and John Chrysostom's Reading of the Johannine Jews	142
4 Cyril of Alexandria	153
Cyril's Commentary on John : Backgrounds	155
Cyril and the Johannine Christ: Teachers of Orthodox Doctrine	162
The Johannine Jews as Catalysts of Orthodox Doctrine	174
Cyril's Reading of the Fourth Gospel and Contemporary Jews	196
5 Conclusion	203
Summary: Ancient and Modern Readings of John's Jews	203
Reflections on the Ancient and Modern Readings	206
Bibliography	217
Index of Ancient Sources	241
Index of Names, Places, and Subjects	250