

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1

PART ONE

GENERAL BACKGROUND

1. Christians in Carthage	7
2. Jews in Carthage: Between Palestine and the Diaspora	11
3. The "Parting of the Ways"	21
Making the Borderlines Clearer Following the Destruction of the Temple	22
Obvious Separation between Judaism and Christianity Does Not Prevent Ongoing Contacts	26
Judaism and Christianity Remain Intertwined	29
The Failure	35
The Comparison of Tertullian's De Idolatria with Massekhet Avodah Zarah as a Case Study	37
4. Scholarship on the Possible Jewish Influence on Tertullian's Texts	39
Claiming a Jewish Influence on Tertullian	39
Denying Jewish Influence on Tertullian	44

PART TWO

DIRECT CONTEXT

5. Tertullian's Heresies	49
A Jewish Experience?	49
A Particular Case in a Particular Environment	52
Montanist Schism?	53
What Kind of Montanism Did Tertullian Know?	57

6. Tertullian's Place among Other Christian Authors:
Views on Idolatry in Comparison	61
A Short Survey of the Different Ways the Pagans Envisaged
Their Idols	61
Logical Explanations	61
Critics of Religion	63
The Symbolists	64
Generalities	67
The Character of the Speech on Idols	68
Other Common Themes	75
Miscellaneous	75
Immorality in Idolatry	81
On the Jews' Observances and on Meats Offered to Idols	82
7. Tertullian in a Graeco-Roman World	89
The Nature of Philosophy from the First to the Third
Century CE	89
Tertullian and Stoicism	90
Direct Cultural Influences on Tertullian	92
8. The Issue of the Jews' Involvement within the Wider
Graeco-Roman World	104
The Jews and the Graeco-Roman World	104
Final Remarks about the Background of the Comparison	106
The Maccabees and Figurative Representations	106
Openness and Withdrawal	107

PART THREE

TERTULLIAN AND THE JEWS ON IDOLATRY

Introduction to Part Three	113
9. Comparison	117
Social Relationships	117
Public Festivals	117
Private Festivals	122
Commensality	127
Immorality in Idolatry	130

Other Entertainments	134
Bathhouses	134
Shows and Games	136
Garments	140
Commercial Relationships	142
The Name of the Idols	142
"The Alleged Ban on Greek Wisdom"	142
Practical Applications When Living among the
Pagans	144
Trading Products	152
Outsmarting the Law?	152
Working with the Pagans	159
Neutral Space	167
The Lure of Idolatry	167
Dedication to Idolatry	177
Coexistence	182
Finding the Neutral Space	183
Justifying the Neutral Space	189
10. Contribution of the Comparison: Jews and
Christians in Contact	195
Did Jewish and Christian Communities Meet in Carthage?	197
Tertullian's Feelings towards the Jews	201
Does Tertullian Refer to Real Jews?	203
Do the Results of the Comparison Challenge Common
Opinions about "Jewish Proselytism"?	207
Jews and Christians Allied against the Pagans	214
Conclusions	217

APPENDICES

Appendix One	Identification of the Festivals Quoted in Mishnah
Avodah Zarah I, 3		221
Appendix Two	Genousia and Other Celebrations	224
Appendix Three	Intermarriage.....	226
Appendix Four	בימוסיאות	228
Appendix Five	Mandell vs. Lieberman	230
Appendix Six	Clothing	233

Bibliography 235

Index of Sources 247

General Index 253