

Contents

Acknowledgement	vii
Citation Information	ix
Notes on Contributors	xi
 Introduction – diverse perspectives on Jewish life in Southeast Europe: the Holocaust and beyond Kateřina Králová	 1
1. Defining inter-communality between documents, tradition and collective memory: Jewish and non-Jewish capital and labor in early twentieth century Rhodes Andreas Guidi	10
2. Antisemitism as political theology in Greece and its impact on Greek Jewry, 1967–1979 Tobias Blümel	26
3. Voices from the ghetto of Thessaloniki: mother–son correspondence as a source of Jewish everyday life under persecution Leon Saltiel	48
4. From salvation to Alya: the Bulgarian Jews and Bulgarian-Israeli relations (1948–1990) Rumyana Marinova-Christidi	68
5. Rebuilding the community: the Federation of Jewish Communities and American Jewish humanitarian aid in Yugoslavia, 1944–1952 Emil Kerenji	90
6. ‘Being traitors’: post-war Greece in the experience of Jewish partisans Kateřina Králová	108
7. Memorialization of the Holocaust in Transylvania during the early post-war period Zoltán Tibori-Szabó	126
 Index	 145