

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
1 Two Worlds, Two Traditions: Christian Hebraists and Amsterdam Sephardim	15
2 Menasseh Enters the Christian Public Sphere: From the First Years in Portugal to the Publication of the Latin Conciliator	39
3 Approaches to an Abrahamic Theology: Menasseh's Books on Creation and Resurrection	65
4 Jewish Contributions to Christian Debates: De termino vitae libri III and the Treatise on Human Frailty	99
5 Jewish Debates on Christian Millenarianism: Menasseh's Esperança de Israel and Spes Israelis	131
6 The Resettlement of Jews in England: The Humble Addresses and Vindiciae Judaeorum	159
7 Jewish Reactions: Menasseh ben Israel and the Sephardic Jews of Amsterdam	185
8 Menasseh ben Israel: Mediating and Protecting Jewish Knowledge	201
Bibliography	221
Index	251
About the Author	265