

≈ CONTENTS ≈

List of Figures and Tables	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
Neil Gregor and Thomas Irvine

Part I. Spaces and Moments of Affect

Chapter 1. "The German in the Concert Hall": Concertgoing and National Belonging in the Early Twentieth Century	33
Hansjakob Ziemer
Chapter 2. "Music Made in Hamburg": How One City's Music Scene Helped Make Rock and Roll the Lingua Franca of Youth	54
Julia Sneeringer
Chapter 3. "With Every Inconceivable Finesse, Excess, and Good Music": Sex, Affect, and Techno at Snax Club in Berlin	73
Luis-Manuel Garcia

Part II. The Local, the Regional, the National

Chapter 4. Bruckner, Munich, and the Longue Durée of Musical Listening between the Imperial and Postwar Eras	97
Neil Gregor
Chapter 5. Female Musicians and "Jewish" Music in the Jewish Kulturbund in Bavaria, 1934–38	123
Dana Smith
Chapter 6. Pride of Place: The 1963 Rebuilding of the Munich Nationaltheater	145
Emily Richmond Pollock

Part III. Globalizing Musical Germanness

- Chapter 7. Was ist Japanisch? Wagnerism and Dreams of Nationhood in Modern Japan 169
Brooke McCorkle
- Chapter 8. Hubert Parry, Germany, and the “North” 194
Thomas Irvine

Part IV. Fantasies, Reminiscences, Dreams, Nightmares

- Chapter 9. Between Musicology and Mythology at the Stunde Null:
Austria’s 950th “Birthday” and the 50th Anniversary of Bruckner’s
Death 221
Lap-Kwan Kam
- Chapter 10. Hearing the Nazi Past in the German Democratic Republic: Antifascist Fantasies, Acoustic Realities, and Haunted
Memories in Georg Katzer’s Aide –Mémoire (1983) 247
Martha Sprigge
- Chapter 11. Sprockets + Autobahn: Kraftwerk Parodies, German
Electronic Music, and Retro Dreams in Amerika 272
Sean Nye
- Index 296