

Contents

Abbreviations	ix
Acknowledgments	x
Hebrew transliteration	xi
Introduction	1
PART I
India's idolaters, magicians, scientists, philosophers, and ascetics: 12–14th centuries	9
1 Judah Ha-Levi: "Idols, Talismans, and Ruses"	11
2 Abraham Ibn Ezra and the Aristotelian astrologers	47
3 The kingdoms of South Asia and the hierarchy of religions in Benjamin of Tudela's Book of Travels	81
4 Translations and transformations: Glorious wisdom: Jacob ben El'azar and India's Panchatantra	102
5 Translations and transformations: Immanuel Bonfils, the Brahmins, and Alexander the Great	118
PART II
The Indian history of a biblical verse: Partial revelation 17th and 20th centuries	137
6 Genesis 25:6, Menasseh ben Israel, and the east	139

PART III

New paths to India: 19th century	169
7 Samson Bloch: Indian philosophy and priestly system	171
8 David d'Beth Hillel: The hidden meanings of temple Hinduism	186
9 Jacob Sapir: Temple Hinduism as Torah-study	196
Conclusion	224
Index	233