

CONTENTS

Preface	xi
I. German Politics and Historiography: About the Third Reich and the Jews, from the Late Nineteenth Century to the Early Post-World War II Era	1
II. The Post-War Germanies and the Rebirth of Extremist Nationalism. Allied Occupation and the Revival of German Nationalist Propaganda	60
III. The Rise of Historical and Political Revisionism, 1965 to the Early 1980s, and Democratic and Liberal Responses	88
IV. The "Historikerstreit," 1986-87 Jürgen Habermas and the Major Protagonists of Neo-Conservatism and Revisionism: E. Nolte, F. Hillgruber, K. Hildebrand, M. Stürmer, and J. Fest	118
V. German Scholarly Critique of the "Revisionists"	165
VI. Repercussions of the "Historikerstreit" Abroad, Politics and the Holocaust	187
Epilogue: From the Fall of the Berlin Wall to the Reunification of Germany	208
Notes	214
Bibliography	227
Index	249