
Contents

Manfred Hutter / Ulrich Vollmer
Introductory Notes: The Context of the Conference in the History of Jewish Studies in Bonn	7
 Part 1: Jewish Communities in Asia
Gabriele Shenar
Bene Israel Transnational Spaces and the Aesthetics of Community Identity	21
 Edith Franke
Searching for Traces of Judaism in Indonesia	39
 Vera Leininger
Jews in Singapore: Tradition and Transformation	53
 Manfred Hutter
The Tiny Jewish Communities in Myanmar, Thailand and Cambodia . .	65
 Alina Pătru
Judaism in the PR China and in Hong Kong Today: Its Presence and Perception	77
 Suzanne D. Rutland
The Asia-Pacific Region and Australian Jewry	91
 Part 2: Religion and Politics
Meron Medzini
Zionist Federations and Zionist Diplomacy in Asia to Ensure United Nations Support for the 1947 Partition Plan	111

Jonathan Goldstein / Dean Kotlowski
The Jews of Manila: Manuel Quezon, Paul McNutt, and the Politics and Consequences of Holocaust Rescue	123
Malte Gaier
Jews in Pakistan in the Context of Estranged Pakistani-Israeli Relations	139
Pingan Liang / Zheng Liang
The Bilateral Relations between Israel and Modern China (1948 – 2010)	151
Theo Kamsma
The Artful Deletion of Israeli / Jewish Presence in the Straits	163
Part 3: Judaism in Everyday Life and Society
Heinz Werner Wessler
“My Backward Place is Where I am”: Jewish Identity and Jewish Authorship in India	191
Yudit Kornberg Greenberg
Hindu-Jewish Dialogue: A New Tradition in the Making	211
Annette Wilke
The Hindu-Jewish Leadership Summits: New “Ground-breaking Strides” of Global Interfaith Cooperation?	225
Ping Zhang
When Chokhmah met Zhi : Perception and Misperception of Jewish Wisdom in China since the 1990s	249
Gilya Gerda Schmidt
Why the Chinese People are Interested in Judaism, the Holocaust, and Israel	259