

Table of Contents

Jürgen Hesselbach

Preface	9
---------------	---

Anja Hesse

Preface	11
---------------	----

Katrin Kessler and Alexander von Kienlin

Foreword	13
----------------	----

Introduction

Alexander von Kienlin

Jewish Architecture as Historical Source	15
--	----

The Building as a Source

Hans-Christof Haas

The Synagogue of Allersheim in Lower Franconia: An Example of Building Style that has almost been lost	23
--	----

Lee Shai Weissbach

Synagogue Buildings as Primary Sources: The American Example	35
--	----

Hagit Hadaya

East-Central European Synagogue Tradition in Canada	45
---	----

Archival Sources

Katrin Kessler

The Jewish Ritual Bath in Germany: Evolution and Statistics	53
---	----

Martha Stellmacher

Architectural Drawings of Synagogue Organs: A Preliminary Study on the Organs of Synagogues in Strasbourg, Krefeld and Berlin	65
---	----

Jewish Architecture in Literature

Yonatan Adler

Rabbinic Literary Evidence on the Mikveh in Medieval Germany:
A Work in Progress 77

Ilia Rodov

Revisiting the “Blind Synagogue”: Vision and Voice in Double-Nave Prayer Halls 83

Annette Weber

Text and Context: Jewish Concepts of Synagogue Architecture in Medieval and Modern Times 95

Sergey R. Kravtsov

The Modern-Time Theoretical Reconstructions of the Mishnaic
Temple as a Source for Synagogue Architecture 105

Jewish Architecture and Politics

Doron Bar

From Germany to the Homeland:
Reinterment of four Zionist notables in Israel 115

Rebekka Denz

Sites of (Dis)memory? Former Synagogues in the Countryside:
the Case Study Lower Franconia 123

The Architect and his Design

Pirkko-Liisa Schulman

Jac. Ahrenberg: The Man who designed the Helsinki Synagogue 133

Mirko Przystawik

Ludwig Levy and His Synagogue Designs: The Strasbourg
Synagogue in Contemporary Print Media 143

Ulrich Knufinke & Sylvia Necker

Jewish Ways to Architecture between Weimar Republic,
National Socialism and Emigration: Questions for Future
Interdisciplinary Research in the Field of Jewish Architecture 151